

Choose your own starter

Common Misspellings: Fill the gap with the correct spelling.

1. Despite years of practising, the pupil still..... (does/dose) not spell very well.
2. In the cinema, the audience were very..... (quiet/quite) as they waited for the film to start.
3. We learn at a young age to be (carful/careful) as we cross the road.
4. The woman dresses smartly because she had to give a (speech/speech) in front of a big crowd.
5. There..... (were/where) twenty cats on the roof.
6. The naughty lad jumped(off/of) the top of the tower.
7. There's not.....(alot/ a lot) he can't do.
8. She was very(exited/excited) as tomorrow was her birthday.

Apostrophes:

To show a letter has been left out. Write the sentences out in full.
I'll be there in a minute > I will be there in a minute.

She's gone to the seaside.
There's a man knocking on the door.
Can you guess where I've been?
You're not going to like this.
Don't do that!

To show something belongs to someone.

The hump of the camel. The camel's hump.
The title of the story.
The father of the bride.
The coat of the boy.

Verbs: Complete these sentences with the verbs to form each list.

We.....to go to the cinema but Johnny he wanted to go bowling.
Linda.....gone with you if you told her sooner.
The boy already to cross the road as she round the corner
If you hadus, then we would have revised harder.

was	starting	insisted	had encouraged	wanted	would have	drove

Homophones are words that sound the same but are spelled differently and have different meanings.

1. Do you what time you'll arrive? (know/no)
2. What will youto the party? (where/wear)
3. I don't think I'll be to go. (allowed/aloud)
4. I need to ... a letter. (write/right)
5. They let us use.....house for the party. (they're/there/their)
6. Can youthe church bells? (here/hear)
7. I don't know this is correct. (whether/weather)
8. It's usually noisy in here but today it's....(quiet/quite)

Capital letters: use at the start of sentences, for proper nouns.

Use capital letters correctly for:
3 teachers' names.

3 places to visit.

3 languages

3 book titles

3 months of the year.

Write a sentence where you include an example of 3 proper nouns

Plurals: Write a sentence with the plural of each word. ('Plural' means more than one)

woman	half	celebrity	wife
child	bus	penny	tomato
monkey	witch	goose	radio

Modal verbs: Could, would and should.

PRESENT: I should go PAST: I should have gone. NOTE: the word 'of' must not be used.

With that much money, she bought a new car.

He spoken at the meeting if he hadn't lost his voice.

You really given back the things you borrowed.

You been late if you didn't catch the bus.

